Who?

Bilingual English-French children from Moyenne Section upwards.

What?

Fun and structured weekly English classes or holiday day camps with qualified teachers. Theme based learning backed up with Jolly Phonics, reading, creative writing, spelling and grammar. Camps include art, drama, science and sport.

Why?

According to our last survey: Maintain and improve English in general; make English-speaking friends; exposure to English speaking culture; written English; self-confidence; creative writing; a more "anglo" experience in the classroom and... just fun.

When?

Every week or during the school holidays.

Where?

Ile de France and Lyon. Please see our exact class and camp locations at www.r-sh.fr/locations.
